POSTDOCTORAL FELLOWSHIP IN RACE AND GENDER HISTORY: 2020-2021

The Department of History at Rutgers University announces a post-doctoral fellowship for scholars pursuing research in race and gender studies. The successful applicant must have the doctorate in hand at the time of application, be no more than six years beyond the Ph.D., and be able to teach history courses. The fellowship of $60,000 is for one year and includes benefits and a $5,000 research stipend.

The recipient will teach at least one small course in the history department and participate in the seminar series at either the Rutgers Center for Historical Analysis (https://rcha.rutgers.edu/future-project/description) or the Institute for Research on Women (https://irw.rutgers.edu/programs/seminar/465-2020-2021-irw-seminar-call).

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS
Applications should be addressed to Professor Deborah Gray White, Post-Doc Search Chair, and submitted electronically to: http://jobs.rutgers.edu/postings/106931. Applications should include the following: letter of interest, C.V., research proposal, writing sample, and at least three letters of reference. The deadline for applications is April 15, 2020.
